WHY ABHILASH

Commander Abhilash Tomy has lived what most only dare to imagine; he sailed alone, non-stop, around the world, becoming India's first solo circumnavigator.

In 2018, a violent storm in the Southern Ocean broke his spine and his boat, but not his will. Four years later, he returned to the same race that nearly killed him and made history again — the first Asian ever to finish on the podium of a round-the-world sailing race.

A thrilling tale of
courage,
survival
and an unstoppable
spirit.

TESTIMONIALS

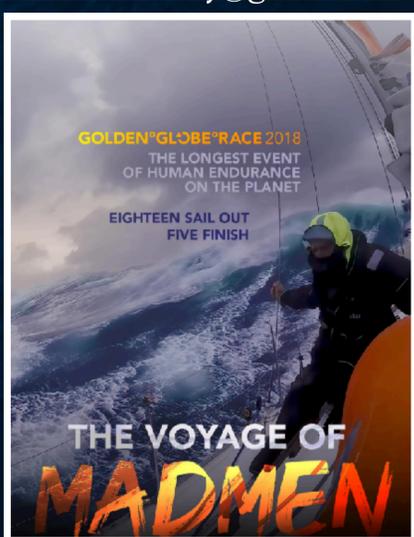

"Absolutely wonderful experience.... He just completely aced the session, absolutely inspirational, the way he spoke about reaching a target without having any control on the elements that influence the journey. Exactly what we needed to hear, being a company that has no control over the targets and external factors... one hour was not enough." - Siemens Software

"Your message was the highlight of our Partner Summit... We are grateful for the energy and perspective you brought to the summit and for reminding us all of the strength of the human spirit." - Hitachi Vantara
